CHAMBER MUSIC

Chamber music requires special skills both musical and social that differ to those learned playing solo or in an orchestra. Each afternoon students have the opportunity to work in small chamber groups suited to their own level. Working together to improve their interaction with each other as well as their playing technique.

The Friday evening concert offers students the opportunity to show the skills they have learned during the week.

Gloucestershire

Gloucestershire Academy of Music Holiday courses have been running for over 30 years with students returning year after year.

The Music

A range of repertoire is chosen appropriate to the standard of the students.

In 2017, this included Debussy's La Cathédrale Engloutie, and the first movement of Mendelssohn's Symphony number 4.

SENIOR ORCHESTRA

5th to 11th August 2018

The appeal of our summer holiday courses is that students bring their own tents and camp in the grounds of our chosen venue. We choose venues offering plentiful rehearsal spaces & music facilities.

Plus having outdoor space for fun and games, all of our venues have the facilities needed for a fun filled music making week.

*The course fee covers all music tuition (over 30 hours during the week), all food, all onsite activities and all trips. In 2018 students will also have the opportunity to take part in a Gamelan workshop.

The Tutors

A Gloucestershire Academy of Music holiday course offers students the opportunity to work closely with highly experienced and inspirational tutors who are also professional musicians themselves.

Welfare Staff

Our highly experienced and very popular welfare teams help make the course a fun-packed week. They look after the students when they are not participating in music sessions and are skilled at dealing with all eventualities and provide excellent pastoral care.
Activities outside music-making time could be swimming, visits to nearby student friendly attractions, teen treasure hunt,
